DESCRIPTION OF GARMENT(S)

Describe all garments to be modeled in Public Revue. Write this as you would like to have it read. Parts of the description: The lead - That's the first sentence that catches the audience's attention. Think of something that will tie the outfit to the personality of the person modeling. For example, if the person is wearing exercise clothing and they are a die-hard aerobics enthusiast, start with something like "Emily Jones will look sharp for her next aerobics class in this fuchsia and black leotard." Here's another example: "Andy Smith is ready to boot, scoot, and boogie across the dance floor in his back and teal western outfit." Unlike retail fashion shows where the objective is to sell the clothing, 4-H fashion shows allow members to share their project's results with the public. In turn, it's fun when 4-H'ers can share about themselves as well as the project. Description may be e-mailed to eschnewe@ksu.edu, but attach a copy to this entry form.

The next step is to describe the outfit. Include: style, design, fabric, trim, color of outfit; personal likes and dislikes; description of accessories and where garment is to be worn.

Example 1: What to wear for dressy occasions won't be a problem for Mary Smith of the Dodge Clovers 4-H Club. She has purchased this blouse of poly rayon which features a double collar with black as the accent color. The hidden placket closure is also trimmed in black. Her long straight high waisted skirt of black ploy repeats the accents in her long sleeved blouse. To complete her look she wears a wide black leather belt and shoes. Mary will be a sophomore at Dodge City High School this fall. She enjoys swimming, softball and going out with her friends.
